To: Director of Entertainment
From: Italian Sons and Daughters of America
Ref: Lawrence C. Branchetti (Singer / Entertainer)

This letter is to introduce Mr. Lawrence C. Branchetti, an Italian/American singer.

The Italian Sons and Daughters of America is the second largest ethnic organization in the United States. ISDA was founded May 30, 1930 in Pittsburgh, and has over 130 lodges located in Pennsylvania, West Virginia, Ohio, New York, Michigan, Illinois, Indiana and Florida.

CIAO, which is the central umbrella over other Italian organizations has also endorsed Mr. Branchetti, and most recently Mr. Branchetti was recognized by the Supreme Lodge of the Sons of Italy out of Washington in their national magazine, The Italian American, which has a circulation of over 100,000 Italian families across the United States. Mr. Branchetti has proven his ability to perform as a singer, and has been recognized by the Miami Herald staff reporter Yvonne Perez: "Branchetti has the same snap, crack, and pizzazz as our beloved Ol' Blue Eyes, the later Mr. Frank Sinatra."

However, Mr. Branchetti is not an impersonator. His own voice has some similarity to Mr. Sinatra's. He is currently performing with the Sonny Mange Orchestra, a 17-piece award-winning band that performed with Mr. Sinatra and many other greats. We know Mr. Branchetti has the potential to become one of the greats, he just hasn't been discovered, and we are hoping that your television/radio station would give Mr. Branchetti the exposure and opportunity to perform on a national scale. Surely with that opportunity he would be discovered.

As an Italian-American organization, we stand by and support Mr. Branchetti fully and completely. He has given his time and energy to support fund-raising events; he has proven to us that he is truly humane and has what it takes to set an example for the younger Italian-Americans to carry on their proud tradition.

Hoping that we will hear from you with regard to our request, I remain

Sincerely yours,

Vincent Constantino
National Vice-President
ISDA State of Florida
